GLOSSARY

Electronic transactions: refers to transactions which are initiated via an electronic banking service.

IBAN (International Bank Account Number): International standard of Bank Account Numbers. It can be made of up to 34 alphanumeric characters. It consists of a country code (2 letters), a control number (2 digits) and a national account number.

Instructions about BEN/SHA/OUR fees:

- SHA: shared fees, the payer and the beneficiary pay the fees calculated by their respective banks.
- OUR: the costs are borne by the payer.
- BEN: the costs are borne by the beneficiary.

Paper-based transactions: refers to transactions which are ordered by fax or letter (by regular mail) to SG.

Payment execution period: it is the period the bank needs in order to process payments and transmit orders for payment. The execution period depends on the process cycle of the operation (national or international clearing house, correspondent bank), the payment currency, the destination country and the FX operation if necessary.

SEPA Zone: Single Euro Payments Area, consists of 34 countries (all 28 member states of the European Union as well as Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Switzerland, Monaco and San Marino).

Straight Through Processing (STP): Transfer processed by the bank automatically without any manual intervention or repair.

SEPA Credit Transfer: Transfer in EUR with the following features:

- The accounts of the payer and the beneficiary are located in a country of the SEPA zone,
- The IBAN and the BIC of the beneficiary are mentioned,
- It is processed without any manual intervention (STP),
- The costs are shared (SHA).

SEPA Direct Debit: it is an agreement between two parties, by which the debtor gives a mandate to the creditor which enables him to instruct his bank to draw funds from the debtor's bank account, which is debited by the debtor's bank. The accounts of the creditor and the debtor are located in the SEPA zone, the amount must be expressed in EUR, the IBAN of the debtor and the BIC of the debtor's bank must be mentioned.
